Welcome to our 2010 catalogue!

We hope that you will enjoy browsing through our biggest catalogue ever! 24 pages full of information on all our titles.

Times are hard for us all just now so you will not be surprised to learn that we have had to review our prices to more accurately reflect the increased costs we face.

We have included all our publications in one volume (including our growing wind band section), all clearly marked with order codes and prices in sterling (GBP), and have added approximate durations wherever possible. For brass band music we have indicated whether a full or condensed score is included.

We hope to have given you all the information you need, but if you have any questions just get in touch. If you'd like to visit us during office hours and see the music before you buy, just call to arrange an appointment.

If you have any suggestions for further improvements to the catalogue please feel free to let us know, in the meantime happy browsing!

Office Hours

Office hours vary, but are usually 9am–1pm Monday–Thursday. Outside these times please do leave a message on our answering machine (so we can call you back) or send an email.

When leaving messages please speak clearly, spell out any unusual names, and don't forget to leave a contact number.

If you are ordering music, please remember to use the 4-digit codes which you'll find in this catalogue. You may find it useful to have the order form on page 24 to hand!

Pieces in this catalogue are given in Sterling (GBP) and are subject to change without notice.

How to Order

The best way to order is from the Online Shop on our website at www.winwoodmusic.com, but you can also order by email, phone, fax, or post. Simply complete the order form on page 24 and send it to us, fax it, or have it to hand while placing your order by phone or email. We accept payment by Visa, Mastercard, Maestro, and sterling cheques drawn on a UK bank. Postage is charged extra (see page 24).

We aim to dispatch your order as soon as possible within 10 working days of receipt, but no music can be sent without full payment in advance, so please make sure to enclose payment or credit card details with your order. Occasionally items may be out of stock or unavailable, if there looks like being a lengthy delay we'll do our best to let you know. Some items are printed to order – contact us for current availability. Cards are not charged until your order is ready for dispatch. To avoid delay or confusion please remember to use the 4-digit order code.

Small print

Music will only be sent on receipt of full payment except for official orders from recognised Government and educational establishments. Please make sterling cheques and money orders payable to Winwood Music. Orders are sent to UK addresses by post or parcel force. Dispatch by specified services (registered post, courier etc.) is available by prior arrangement. Overseas orders are sent by Air Mail Printed Papers unless otherwise specified (extra charges apply). We do not send music on a sale or return basis and music can only be exchanged if faulty or sent in error. Prices in this catalogue are in Sterling (GBP) and are subject to change at any time without notice. We reserve the right to delete items from our catalogue at any time without notice. We reserve the right to refuse to supply any individual or organisation.

Featured Titles

Concerto for Trumpet

by Harry James

Available at last in a version for trumpet and piano! Though not a concerto in the classical sense this is, nonetheless, a very popular vehicle for trumpet (or cornet) soloists to show off their jazz credentials! It does not outstay its welcome and is great fun!

0275 7.95

Episode
by Peter Graham
A bustling and energetic solo for horn – including some cadenza work! Characteristic of the composer and, as you'd expect, marvellously colourful and idiomatic, this is a most enjoyable work-out for French or Tenor horn players.

Set for ABRSM Horn grade 8 until 2013.

0123P 8.95

Challenging Brass

by Malcolm Weale

30 progressive studies for all treble or bass clef brass instruments in a wide variety of keys, time signatures, and styles which help develop tone and range, and improve articulation and flexibility. Ideal for daily practice from early grades through to grade 8.

Set for ABRSM grades 4–5 until 2017.

Treble Clef 0247 9.95

Bass Clef 0249 9.95

Harlequin

by Bruce Broughton

Harlequin is the most popular of the comic servant characters from the Italian commedia dell'arte who, although a slow thinker, was acrobatic and nimble – he would never perform a simple action when the addition of a cartwheel or backflip would spice it up!

These characteristics are aptly portrayed musically in Bruce Broughton's mini concert overture. This version for wind band conveys all the hustle, bustle, and agility of the character in a finely crafted musical structure.

Ideal as a concert opener or encore it is sure to delight audiences and provide players with an exciting new addition to their repertory.

0285 55.00

Shepherd's Song

arr. Eric Wilson

Music specially arranged for the legendary cornet player James Shepherd in idiomatic transcriptions for cornet or trumpet and piano. Included are: The Shepherd's Song, Napoli, Rusalka's Song to the Moon, and O My Beloved Father.

Set for ABRSM grades 6 & 8 until 2017.

0084 13.95

The Well-Tempered Player

by Ernest Piper

24 studies expertly adapted from Bach's famous keyboard work which allow great scope for variation of speed, dynamics, and articulation, and help list daily practice to the level of enjoyable music-making. The musical text is generously illustrated with episodes depicting the growth of Bach's own life and career.

Set for Trinity Guildhall grades 6–8 until 2012.

Set for ABRSM tenor horn grades 7–8 until 2013.

0015 9.95

Fantasy for Trombone

by James Curnow

This popular piece has become a core part of the trombone repertory and a chance to show both lyrical and bravura styles in an attractive and showy (yet not overly difficult) concert piece.

Set for ABRSM grade 7 until 2017.

Set for Trinity Guildhall grade 6 until 2012.

0136P 8.95

Escapade

by Joseph Turrin

This is music of great vivacity and character combining driving, rhythmic music with cadenza-like moments of repose. Very popular with players and audiences alike.

Set for ABRSM trumpet grade 8 until 2017.

Set for ABRSM tenor horn grade 8 until 2013.

0099P 8.95

To a Wild Rose

MacDowell arr. Eric Wilson

Easily the most popular work by American composer Edward MacDowell, this new arrangement (carefully set to lie in a comfortable tessitura) allows euphonium players at the start of their solo career a chance to show off the melodic beauty of the instrument.

William Walton's Film Music

It takes a special ability to compose film scores which serve the images perfectly yet translate into great concert music.

William Walton was such a talent as the continuing popularity of his brilliantly evocative film music shows.

Winwood Music is delighted to bring this music to the brass band world in fabulous arrangements by Edward Watson and Elgar Howarth – so idiomatic you'll think these are the originals! Full score and parts provided.

Brass Band: Concert Pieces

The Irish Blessing arr. Stephen Bradnum

A celtic gem – the words of the traditional benediction aptly portrayed in music both affirming and uplifting. This finely crafted and sensitively scored arrangement provides excellent training for bands of all ages, helping to develop dynamic range; integrate solo and tutti, and entertaining an audience! Perfect for devotional or concert use.

Code: 0237 Price: 25.95

A Little Prayer by Evelyn Glennie

Composed as a chorale for marimba, A Little Prayer expressed the composer's spiritual feelings and displayed a pleasantly relaxed dimension of the instrument – a dimension which arranger Robert Childs brings to life through brass.

A perfect reflective interlude for concert or devotional use by bands of all abilities.

Code: 0239 Price: 25.95

Amazing Grace arr. William Himes

This is one of the world's most loved hymn tunes and this glorious arrangement is popular with players and audiences alike. Beautifully crafted, and eloquently scored, this reflective, yet powerful piece builds to a glorious climax perfectly blending the melody with sumptuous new harmonies.

Code: 0039 Price: 27.95

A Festive Prelude by Stephen Bulla

As its title suggests, this short work makes an ideal opening to any concert. It was one of the first works from the pen of this prolific composer and has lost none of its original charm and vigour. A firm favourite throughout the world and recently recorded by the composer.

Code: 0020 Price: 25.95

Harlequin by Bruce Broughton

Harlequin – the most popular of the Italian commedia dell'arte characters – is aptly portrayed musically in Bruce Broughton's mini concert overture. This ever-popular work conveys all the hustle, bustle, and agility of the character in a finely crafted musical structure. Ideal as a concert opener or encore.

Code: 0045 Price: 25.95

Prelude to a New Age by Peter Graham

An early work in a vigorous, optimistic style which is ideal as a concert opener. A broad, driving opening leads to a march-like section before broadening further in a stirring maestoso finish. A work which deserves to be better known.

Code: 0035 Price: 25.95

Agincourt Song arr. Elgar Howarth

This famous 15th-century song commemorating the famous battle in 1415 has been adapted and arranged by many composers over the years. Elgar Howarth originally made this stirring arrangement for 10-piece orchestral brass, and Ray Farr's transcription for brass band employs antiphonal groups to magnificent effect.

Code: 0240 Price: 25.95

A Frontier Overture by Bruce Broughton

The composer aptly captures the pioneering spirit of frontierland in this concert overture.

Full of vitality and idiomatic writing and brimming with colour and life, this four-minute overture is a great way to grab your audience from the first notes.

Players have plenty to enjoy, too!

Code: 0027 Price: 25.95

Blenheim Flourishes by James Curnow

This piece is named after the palace built in 1705 by the Duke of Marlborough..

It does not attempt to be descriptive of Blenheim itself, but strives to capture the spirit of British band enthusiasts.

A stunning, perfectly-formed, concert opener which gives players and audiences much to enjoy.

Code: 0059 Price: 32.95

Lord of the Dance arr. Philip Wilby

This arrangement of the famous shaker melody made popular in Martin Shaw's hymn of Jesus' life and history first appeared as the second movement of Philip Wilby's Partita for Band (Postcards from Home) and has proved a very popular addition to concerts and services.

Code: 0187 Price: 27.95

Folk Heroes by Brian Bowen

Folk music has always seemed to transfer naturally to the homogenous sound of the brass band. Folk Heroes is an attractive rhapsody for brass band by a highly-skilled writer, based on famous folk songs including 'Lavender Blue', 'Johnny Todd', and 'For He's a Jolly Good Fellow'.

Code: 0146 Price: 27.95

Crimond arr. Peter Graham

Here is a most attractive and creative arrangement of the well-known and much-loved hymn tune by Peter Graham – one of the most popular writers for brass band. This is not a run-of-the-mill sing-along version, but a neatly constructed piece in its own right. Not too taxing to play, yet there are some flourishes to give it added sparkle!

Code: 0191 Price: 25.95

Brass Band: Christmas Music

A Christmas Suite by Stephen Bulla

This three-movement suite begins with the jaunty Wassail Song. The second movement is a wonderful version of Lo, how a rose e're blooming while the final movement is a bustling Pot-pourri with hints of several Christmas favourites. At nine minutes it provides a substantial piece for your Christmas concerts.

Concerto for Trumpet

Harry James arr. Elgar Howarth

Though not a concerto in the classical sense this is, nonetheless, a popular vehicle for trumpet (or cornet) soloists to show off their jazz credentials! It does not outstay its welcome and gives players in the ensemble a chance to play some hand-held percussion too. Great fun all round.

Code: 0224 Price: 32.95

Concerto 1945

by Philip Wilby

The concerto's title aims to catch a flavour of that spirit of optimistic vision which coloured the British psyche at the end of the Second War, at once heroic, elegiac, and confident. It's three movements are arranged in a circular pattern around a reflective slow movement; the outer movements are energetic and brisk, heroic and virtuosic.

Fauré arr. Eric Wilson

There are not many works written or arranged expressly for the baritone horn (as opposed to the euphonium) so Eric Wilson's arrangement of this lovely Fauré melody is a welcome one. The slightly smaller, more intimate tone, of the baritone is perfectly suited to this lilting, reflective piece.

Set for ABRSM Grade 4 until 2013.

Code: 0162P Price: 4.95

Idylle Op.4 No.1

Elgar arr. Eric Wilson

Another of Elgar's wonderful short pieces which seems almost tailor-made for the euphonium in this idiomatic transcription.

Soloist parts are provided in B-flat treble and bass clef.

Set for ABRSM Grade 7 until 2013.

Code: 0118P Price: 7.95

Romance Op.62

Elgar arr. Eric Wilson

Originally for bassoon, Eric Wilson has expertly transcribed this beautiful piece for euphonium and piano. The yearning melancholy of the music – a style that is harder to find than one may suppose – is ideally suited to the melifluous, lugubrious tone of the instrument.

Set for ABRSM Grade 8 until 2013.

Code: 0064P Price: 7.95

Capriccio

by Rodney Newton

This delightful tuba solo is a firm favourite all over the world. Written for James Gourlay, it is by turns bold and purposeful, broody and romantic. With a couple of short cadenzas neatly woven into the structure it is effectively a nine-minute concerto with a proven track record with players and audiences. Available with brass band, wind band, and orchestra.

Code: 0100P Price: 9.95

Dashing Away With the Smoothing Iron

by Ray Steadman-Allen

A lighthearted arrangement of an old folk song. The style is generally bright with a short, slower change of pace in the middle. En route there are a couple of quotations: a fragment from one of Mozart's horn concerti and, aptly, 'A-hunting we will go'.

Also available with brass band (see p.10)

Code: 0302P Price: 5.95

Suite Syncopation

by Tony Cliff

The tuba does not often get the chance to show off some jazzy style, so Suite Syncopation should delight those who want to sing the blues tuba-style! There are three blues movements: 'Low-Down Blues'; 'Mellow Blues' and a final 'Demented Waltz' – it's not all in triple time!

Four Pieces for Four Trombones by Gareth Wood

This four-movement suite for four trombones has been popular ever since its first publication in 1978. The current edition features beautiful new engravings making the work more accessible than ever. The movements are entitled: Tango, Song, Parody, and Lament. Parts are provided in both treble and bass clef.

Code: 0009 Price: 15.95

Little Suite for Four Trombones by David Dorward

Little Suite for Four Trombones is cast in four movements: a slow chorale-like 'Intrada' is followed by a perky rhythmic 'Scherzo', a declamatory 'Procession' and a concluding 'Finale'.

Parts are provided in both treble and bass clef.

Code: 0051 Price: 14.95

The Four Temperaments by Robert Simpson

Originally written for brass band, this suite depicts the four traditional temperaments: Sanguine, Phlegmatic, Melancholic, and Choleric, though each movement stands up as absolute music. The composer made this version for Symphonic Brass Ensemble himself.

Capriccio by Elgar Howarth

An ensemble version of a work commissioned by the Musicians Benevolent Fund for the 1994 Leggett Awards. Capriccio is a varied showpiece for solo cornet or trumpet employing a wide range of advanced techniques. The accompaniment is scored for E-flat trumpet/cornet, 3 B-flat trumpets/cornets and percussion (2 players)

Code: 0166 Price: 25.95

Fantasia

by Giovanni Coperario arr. Elgar Howarth

Coperario was a composer with an identity crisis! He was born plain John Cooper, but changed his name after a trip to Italy. Perhaps most famous as the author of 'Rules how to Compose', his fantasias became his most highly regarded works. This short piece is a superb example of the arranger's craft, idiomatically transferring the original to the brilliant sonorities of the modern 10-Piece brass ensemble.

A4 full score. Alternate parts are provided for brass band instruments.

Code: 0169 Price: 13.95

Festival Fanfare by Joseph Turrin

A short, rhythmically exciting fanfare.

Scored for E-flat trumpet/cornet, 9 B-flat trumpets/cornets and percussion (2 players)

Concerto for Euphonium

Philip Wilby

Completed on New Year's Eve 1995, Philip Wilby's concerto has already established itself as one of, if not the, greatest concerto for the instrument written so far. Its extended length seeks to explore that fine combination of sustained lyricism and explosive virtuosity which typifies the modern euphonium in the most expert hands.

A highlight is the second movement – Zeibekikos – a rapid and extrovert Greek Island dance complete with plate smashing! Available with piano (p.16), brass band (p.11), and orchestra (p.23).

Code: 0225 Score: 40.00 Parts: 90.00

Euphonium Music

Brian Bowen

Written in 1978, the work is constructed in three movements and is essentially a concerto for euphonium and band. The first movement begins with an unaccompanied motto theme, which uses all twelve notes of the scale but with a tonal feel. The slow second movement is based on an original song melody by the composer – 'The Eyes of God' – and affords lyrical and richly expressive playing that is typically euphonium. Movement three follows without a break – a capricious movement which ends triumphantly. Euphonium Music can be seen as a major contribution to the literature for the instrument.

Available with piano (p.16), brass band (p.11), and orchestra (p.23).

Symphony for Wind Orchestra – Montage

Peter Graham

Here is a major new addition to the concert band repertory – an impressive work for concerts and festivals where music of stature and substance is required.

Finely crafted and idiomatically scored, each of the three movements has a character of its own, yet they combine to make not just a satisfying whole, but a powerful, dramatic aural montage that will both delight and excite.

Also available with brass band (p.4).

Harlequin

Bruce Broughton

Harlequin is the most popular of the comic servant characters from the Italian commedia dell'arte who, although a slow thinker, was acrobatic and nimble – he would never perform a simple action when the addition of a cartwheel or backflip would spice up the movement!

These characteristics are aptly portrayed musically in Bruce Broughton's mini concert overture. Originally published for brass band in 1984, this revised version for wind band conveys all the hustle, bustle, and agility of the character in a finely crafted musical structure. Ideal as a concert opener or encore it is sure to delight audiences and provide players with an exciting new addition to their repertory.

Code: 0285 Price: 55.00

Brillante

Peter Graham

Brillante was commissioned by Peter Wilson for the British Bandsman Centenary Concert in 1987 and was first performed as a duet by Robert and Nicholas Childs.

Later reworked as a solo with brass band accompaniment, it has become popular the world over – an accessible mix of sentiment and virtuosity!

This wind band version brings the piece to a wider range of players and audiences and is a sure-fire hit!

Also available with brass band (p.11) and orchestra (p.23).

Wind Band

The Irish Blessing

arr. Stephen Bradnum

The Irish Blessing is a little celtic gem. The words of the traditional Irish benediction are aptly portrayed in music which is at once both affirming and uplifting.

This finely crafted and sensitively scored arrangement provides an excellent training vehicle for bands of all ages, helping to develop dynamic range; integrate solo and tutti, and at the same time entertaining an audience! Perfect for devotional or concert use.

Capriccio

Rodney Newton

This delightful tuba solo has become a firm favourite all over the world in its brass band and piano versions and Winwood Music is delighted to make this work available in a wind band version by the composer.

Written for James Gourlay (who premiered the orchestral version in 2005) Capriccio is by turns bold and purposeful, broody and romantic.

With a couple of short cadenzas neatly woven into the structure it is effectively a nine-minute concerto with a proven track record with players and audiences. Capriccio can be seen as an important contribution to the literature for the instrument.

Available with piano (p.16), brass band (p.10), and orchestra (p.23).

Concerto 1945

Philip Wilby

At a time when we are being encouraged to survey the recent past, its title aims to catch a flavour of that spirit of optimistic vision which coloured the British psyche at the end of the Second War, at once heroic, elegiac, and confident. The concerto's three movements are arranged in a circular pattern around a reflective slow movement. At the heart of that movement is a Cadenza, marked to be played off-stage, where the soloist is surrounded and supported by an additional group of fanfare players. By contrast, the outer movements are energetic and brisk, at times heroic, and at times virtuosic.

Also available with piano (p.12) and brass band (p.9).
