Music Hire Terms and Conditions

1. Please check the instrumentation list accompanying the materials and notify us immediately if there are any errors, omissions, or materials damaged beyond use.
 2. The material is supplied solely for the performance(s) as specified in your order. They must not be passed on to a third party or used for:
 - a) Any mechanical reproduction whatsoever, including sound and video recordings
 - b) Television, film, or video
 - c) Radio or Podcast transmission unless expressly agreed in advance.
- Any other use of the material requires the previous written consent of the publisher.
3. The materials must be returned securely packed, complete, and in good condition immediately after the performance(s). Material not returned within 7 days of the last performance date will incur additional charges.
 4. The hirer will pay, at cost, for the full replacement of materials not returned or damaged beyond use other than by fair wear and tear.
 5. The hirer will pay the full cost for the replacement or cleaning of materials defaced (marking in ink, coloured pencil, or obliteration of text or music).
 6. All performances involving this material must be notified to the Performing Rights Society or its affiliates overseas.
 7. This work is copyright and the unauthorised adaptation or copying of the material in whole or part by any method is illegal.
 8. The hirer will supply a copy of the concert programme(s), acknowledging the composer and publisher of the work(s) with the returned materials.
 9. The hirer will supply, on request, two complimentary tickets for each concert performance to the publisher.
